1. Every summer a great number of troops moved through Mukachevo (N 48-26, E 22-43) going south. these troops held maneuvers in a large area southeast of Mukachevo (see diagram, page 2). most of the branches of service were represented in these maneuvers; rumors were that about a division of men would participate in them. I also heard that during winter troops were holding maneuvers north of Mukachevo.
2. there were about 12 AA guns located southeast of Mukachevo.
3. a radar installation southwest of Mukachevo on the grounds of the airfield.

Restricted Areas in Vicinity of MUKACHEVO (N 48-26, E 22-43)LEGEND

- 25X1 1. [] farmers located in the area were ordered not to sow their fields. Rumors circulated among the population that the inhabitants of the area would be resettled, and by the fall [] all roads leading to the area were closed. 25X1
- 25X1 2. [] a road block was established approximately two km south of MUKACHEVO and the approximate area as shown was off-limits to all civilian personnel. [] had no idea why the area was restricted. 25X1
25X1A However, he stated that he saw [] endless columns of trucks and excavation machinery (bulldozers, dump trucks, mechanical shovels) moving through MUKACHEVO toward the area. Great activity in the area was reported by rumors circulating among the population. [] ventured a guess and suggested that perhaps the airfield was being expanded. [] had no further information concerning this area. 25X1A
